Dear Praying Churches and Friends,

Grace Baptist Church of Enfield, my family, and I pray you had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! We pray you had a great time celebrating the birth of Christ and preparing to start a fresh new year and that you, like us, are looking at doing more for Christ than ever before in 2010. Christmas is my favorite time of the year, and we enjoyed the festivities that surrounded our first Christmas here in England. For the first time in over four decades, Enfield had a white Christmas! Holly, our boys, and I enjoyed the snow and playing in it for the few days it was here.

Grace Baptist Church had a Christmas banquet. It was a great time, and God used our time there. In fact, the waitress that was serving our group noticed how different everyone was. She couldn't help but notice the smiles, the laughing, the pleasantries, the comradery, the delightful spirit, and how truly everyone was so joyous. The waitress told me after the banquet that our group was the first group she truly enjoyed serving in a very long time. She stated that most of the people she deals with are "miserable" people, but there was such a difference that she asked what the difference was. What an open door to talk about Christ! I quickly showed her a few things just before we were interrupted, but she said she was going to come to Grace Baptist Church because she wanted what we have! Pray that she does come and that her heart will be open to the Gospel.

So much has happened in these past few months that it is hard to know where to begin. We have had so many visitors still from the John and Romans we passed out, and God is crossing our paths with some wonderful people. Recently I was taking a man soul winning for the first time, and we started knocking on doors. We covered an apartment-like building, and no one showed much interest. I continued praying that God would bring someone across our path that would receive Christ as Saviour. The very last door several young ladies came to the door, and about thirty minutes later those ladies bowed their heads and received Christ as the Saviour! Pray for these young ladies, as they come from a Muslim home and are really being discouraged from coming to church. The man I was soul winning with was so excited that he didn't want to go to work. He tried to call off work so he could go soul winning longer. Praise the Lord!

Please continue to pray for GBC as we begin this New Year. There is so much to do and so little time to do it. I am thrilled to see how God is using His Word to bring growth to these new Christians and how people are readily getting behind our ministry and working with us to get the Gospel to people around this world. God truly has blessed GBC, and I am amazed at how He is building a church here in London.

Thank you for your prayers and faithful support. We are honored to serve Christ here in Enfield on your behalf. My family and I pray that God will use you and your ministries to see many people saved, baptized, and taught this year. Thank you for working with us to reach the lost at any cost!

Yours for the souls of England,

Justin, Holly, David, and Jonathan Williams
